21st Century Parks Seeks Volunteers for Earth Day Clean Up

Louisville, Ky.— 21st Century Parks, the nonprofit organization leading the creation and management of a 4,000-acre public parks system along the Floyds Fork watershed, will host its first community volunteer project—a park clean up—on Friday, April 23.

Approximately 20 volunteers are needed from 2 to 6 p.m. to assist with the clearing of underbrush in areas of the future park lands. Individuals interested in participating in the project should contact Alex Dowd, external relations coordinator, at 502-584-0350.

The event was planned in celebration of the 40th Anniversary of Earth Day. Founded by the late Gaylord Nelson, a U.S. Senator, Earth Day is held annually to inspire awareness and appreciation for the environment.

To receive information about future volunteer opportunities with 21st Century Parks, individuals can sign-up at www.21cparks.org.
